

The Grand Alliance - Dark Elves of Catalucia

This Army list is based on the background and miniature ranges available for Flintloque and Slaughterloo by Alternative Armies, if you want to get more information on the 2 games please visit <http://www.alternative-armies.com/>

Introduction

With a distant thump and a billow of grey the cannonball approach the thin woods and the slope behind them, its force expended in the effort of crossing more than a thousand yards in the clear morning air. It burst through the green leaves and branches, splintering a dew covered trunk and then vanishing from view into the invisible clearing beyond. The cheers of the Elf gunners mingled with the sound of thousands of Elven feet marching in perfect order in the distinctive blue tunic columns that had won the tyrant Mordred and his Ferach Imperial Armee the largest Empire that Valon had ever known. Only a few lands like Catalucia held out, and few enemies like the accursed Albion scum in their stubbornness. They never knew when they were beaten; they never knew when to kneel to the inevitable.....

Catalucia the land of the Dark Elves has suffered, really suffered in the Mordredian Wars. Occupied and annexed by the Ferach Empire and its land fought over again and again as the Army of Albion tries to free it from the Tryant Mordred. With its regular army in the main part scattered it has fallen to a mass of Guerrillas to fight the little war raiding and robbing the enemy where possible. Will the scattered might of the Dark Elves be enough to free themselves with Orcish and Goblin aid?
